

The following is information to support the use of Anger Education online courses with individuals granted probation or mandate through the courts. Anger Education online offers courses that meet basic requirements as outlined in Federal and State Penal Code.

Civicus Learning, in collaboration with TSI, present quality anger management curriculum through state of the art, technical means. The courses are designed and developed based on the following factors:

- The curriculum content is researched based
- The course content is divided into modular concepts
- Each concept is developed from a customized thematic approach
- The course structure and format is based on educational theories of learning
- Built-in, thorough, assessment components exist to promote accountability

Referral for Provisional Court and Probation Approval to Take a Course offered through AngerEducation.com

Invested Third Party:

This letter serves as a written referral from the court, probation department, or other invested third party permitting the requesting defendant to enroll in AngerEducation.com courses. It is required that this referral state the number of minimum session hours the defendant will complete.

This court, _____, located in the county of _____, in the state of _____, allows this defendant, _____, to complete Communication Basics (2 hours), Anger Management (5 –9 hour), or Anger Management (9 – 12 hour) as part of the educational programming component of probation or court mandate. A Certificate of Course Completion will be given upon completion of the course. A student must successfully complete the course with a minimum score of 80% to be awarded a certificate.

This referral serves as a provisional approval and shall be considered an authorization to provide services and shall not be considered a vested right.

Course Options:

Communication Basics	minimum session hours - 2 –3 hours
Anger Management (5 hour)	minimum session hours - 5 –9 hours
Anger Management (9 hour)	minimum session hours – 9 - 12 hours

Official Witness: _____

Witness Title: _____

Court Providing Provisional Approval _____

Referral Date: _____

This referral is written so as to comply with the Federal and State Penal Code as related to those individuals granted probation through the courts and probation who desire to take courses offered through AngerEducationonline as part of their educational rehabilitation.